INTRODUCTION

Cairngarroch Farmhouse is a traditionally built Galloway cottage which within the current ownership, has been improved greatly. This charming deceptively spacious cottage is located in a stunning rural setting on the Rhins of Galloway peninsula, which remains an unspoiled paradise for locals and visitors on the lookout for peace and tranquillity and is also home to the Mull of Galloway, Scotland's most Southerly Point.

This detached cottage offers all the comforts for modern day family living occupying a generous plot, in all about 1.48 acres. The property has been tastefully decorated throughout and offers bright, spacious family living accommodations along with three good sized bedrooms, one being en-suite. To compliment the whole property there are large garden grounds which have been sympathetically sectioned to accommodate a lawned garden, vegetable and fruit garden, small grazing paddock with an area occupied by a relatively new box profile shed which is utilised as a garage (37ft x 20ft).

A feature of the property is the traditional courtyard steading, which is in a good condition commensurate with its age. These buildings could have development potential for change of use. Any interested party wishing to pursue this would need to make their own enquiries with the regional council.

This charming lifestyle property offers the successful purchaser the opportunity to live in an area of outstanding natural beauty with an abundance of native wildlife right on the doorstep. Cairngarroch Farmhouse, albeit rural, is within easy reach of major road networks.

Cairngarroch Farmhouse is located within a popular tourist destination with Portpatrick, a pretty coastal fishing village, located only 7 miles from the property and offers a good choice of restaurants, bars, general store, gift shops and post office. There are many coastal walks to and from Portpatrick including the start of the coast to coast walk 'The Southern Upland Way'. The area also boasts Scotland's most exotic garden, Logan Botanic, only a short drive away from Cairngarroch Farmhouse. There are four other gardens locally, formal and informal, where the plants and shrubs thrive due to the milder climate of the Gulf Stream.

Local services by way of primary schooling, village shops, hotels, restaurants, etc. are available at both Portpatrick and Sandhead Villages. The regional centre of Stranraer is located about 9 miles north of Cairngarroch Farmhouse and offers all the essential services and a comprehensive range of leisure facilities to include Secondary Schooling, shops and supermarkets, a retail park, curling club, coastal rowing club, sailing club, sports centre, cinema and a modern medical centre and hospital.

This area of Southwest Scotland is noted for its spectacular coastline, which provides a vast range of opportunities for the outdoor enthusiast to include wonderful walks, coarse and sea fishing as well as shooting, sailing, coastal rowing and cycling. There are numerous beaches and sandy coves within a 3-mile radius of the property and the area boasts numerous golf courses.

Communications to the area are much improved with the A75 trunk road providing quick access from the south via the M6 & M74. The ferry links to Northern Ireland run from Cairnryan which is a short drive away, with the international airport of Glasgow being within 2 hours drive from the property. There is a mainline railway station at Stranraer offering services to Ayr, Troon, Kilmarnock, Prestwick Airport & Glasgow.
